

HELPING YOU SECURE THE BEST DEALS ON SEED.

THAT'S MORE COOPERATIVE.

When seed suppliers offer early order discounts, you need to have the appropriate funding in place to make the deal. DFA Financing, provided by Agri-Max Financial Services, can open the door to significant savings with seed loans designed to meet your forage needs.

No matter where you're purchasing your seed, we can help you maximize your savings while offering competitive financing rates with flexible terms. In addition, our lines of credit can be used throughout the year to help ensure your feed needs are met.

DFA Financing loan features:

- Simple loan application
- Quick approval for qualified borrowers
- Variable rates
- Flexible terms
- No prepayment penalties
- Easy milk check deduction payment plan

Our experienced team of loan officers is available to help you take advantage of seed discounts and rebates through our quick loan application process, which can help you maximize inputs for your operation.
